OPINION OF THE PRESS.

"The skirt is really the one thing desired, being capable of conferring any amount of crusing and displaying, and is the only skirt with which I have been in love."

"The Duplex Elliptic is the most impressive skirt I have ever seen."

"They are not equal in elegance, simplicity, durability or economy." — N. Y. Daily Mirror.

"The Duplex Elliptic is the most impressive skirt I have ever seen."

"It gives the ordinary dress a style that requires no comparison."

CAUTION.

Buyers of Duplex Skirts should examine the hoops to be sure they are double in the hoop. Inquire for J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Skirt.
See that his name is on the skirt band.

the position of those who are in rebellion, to overturn the Government and the manner of its formation. They did not believe they were breaking their oaths to support the Constitution when they went with their State.

Others who did not believe in the right of secession found themselves subject to their oaths, and were compelled to break them. No one could say they did not break them, and the few of our who were for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and the right of secession was one maintained and defended by so many of those engaged in the political lights of the country.

Others believed that the Federal Government had ceased to be what it was intended to be, that its institutions were violated, and, consequently, that the Government in itself, was not to be trusted. They did not believe they were breaking their oaths to the common
